Environmental, Energy, and Natural Resources Law Curriculum

Required Core Courses (14 credit hours):

Legal Process (2 credits)
LAW-N 836

This course must be taken during the first summer session of your matriculation; and

The following courses during your first fall semester of matriculation:

Torts (4 credits); and
Law-D/N 541

Property (4 credits)
Law-D/N 509

The following course during your first spring semester of matriculation:

Constitutional Law (4 credits)
Law-D/N 620

Elective Courses (No fewer than 16 credit hours):

Administrative Law (3 credits)
LAW-D/N 647

Advanced Field Research (1-4 credits)
LAW-D 603

Agriculture Law and the Environment (2 credits)
LAW-D/N 659

Animals and the Law (2 credits)
LAW-D/N 640

Energy Law and Policy (2 or 3 credits)
LAW-D/N ______

Environment and Toxic Tort Law (2 or 3 credits)
LAW-D/N 611

Environmental Justice (3 credits)
LAW-D/N 681

Effective 27 June 2014
Environmental Law (3 or 4 credits)
LAW-D/N 891

Natural Resources Law (3 credits)
LAW-D/N 717

Seminar in Public Utilities Regulation (2 cr.)
LAW-D/N 858

Supervised Research (1-4 credits)
LAW-D/N 661

Water Law (2 or 3 credits)
LAW-D/N 882

Interested in learning more about focusing your MJ studies on environmental, energy or natural resources law? Please contact Professor Debby McGregor at 274.2608 or dmcgreg@iupui.edu.

Effective 27 June 2014