Indiana University
Robert H. McKinney School of Law

Empowering you to make a difference with knowledge of the law.

Master of Jurisprudence (M.J.) Degree: A degree for ambitious working professionals, who regularly navigate the law in their work.

If you’ve ever wanted to learn more about the law as it impacts your profession, but don’t want to practice law, this is the degree for you.

You can further develop the following skills to help enhance your career:

» Gain knowledge and understanding of substantive areas of law
» Synthesize information
» Think critically
» Analyze complex issues
» See multiple sides of an argument
» Present information in a clear and effective way
» Understand regulatory framework

With only a limited number of required courses in a 30-credit program, you have the power to create your own specialization, and tailor the degree to your goals.

Not only do you get to customize your degree, but you will have a flexible schedule that allows you to take classes part-time or full-time, including evening classes.

Full-time Indiana University staff members can also use their employee tuition reimbursement benefit on the program.

If you want to learn more, contact mjlaw@iupui.edu.

mckinneylaw.iu.edu
IUPUI staff members who have benefited from their M.J. degrees:

Gretchen Dennis, M.J. ’20
Associate Director of Human Resources
Indiana University School of Medicine

“Shortly after joining the IUSM and learning about the tuition reimbursement program, I started to look into programs at IU that might fit my professional and personal development goals. I found the MJ program via an online search for masters programs at IU. It was exactly what I was looking for. Not only have I been more successful and effective in my current role, but I was recently promoted to an Associate Director role within my group.”

---

Connie Ely, M.J. ’20
Assistant Director, Finance and Administration
Indiana University School of Liberal Arts at IUPUI

“My current position at IUPUI is in finance and administration – human resources is a big part of what I deal with every day. This degree has already helped me be better prepared to give, not only answers, but explain the why. I feel this degree has helped me be more inclusive and has helped to eliminate any biases that may occur in hiring/work related issues.”

---

Michele George, M.J. ’18
Student Employment Consultant
Office of Student Employment

“I believe my M.J. degree has been a great factor in being more educated and aware of changes in the law. It allows me to be a better advocate for the students that I encounter, my colleagues that I work with, and the IUPUI community that I support.”

---

Evelyn Safder, M.J. ’17
Assistant Director Financial Aid, Scholarship Data and Systems

“I believe that having this degree helps me with problem solving. I read and gather facts more thoroughly before making any decisions, definitely more than I did prior to completing my degree in the M.J. program.”

---

If you want to learn more, contact mjlaw@iupui.edu.