Each question below must be answered. If a question does not apply, indicate by writing “N/A.”
Use additional sheets if necessary.

1. Please describe any foreign study programs in which you have participated and received academic credit
2. If you are under any medical restrictions or require any accommodation, please explain.

3. If you have been convicted of a criminal offense other than a minor traffic violation, if there is a criminal charge pending against you, or if you have been disciplined by a law school or bar authority, please explain.
4. Each student applicant must submit with this Application a letter from the Registrar or similar administrator at your law school certifying good standing. Attorneys must submit evidence of good standing to practice in an American or foreign jurisdiction. Note: The Program Coordinator will complete this task for IU Robert H. McKinney Law students. Persons applying as a community participant should contact the Program Director for additional details.
5. The Program fee is due by May 8, 2020. Failure to make any payment by the due date can cause the applicant to be excluded from the Program. See Program website for full statement of cancellation policy.

Note: The Chinese Law Summer Program does not charge or collect tuition. The applicant's school may or may not charge tuition or collect a transfer credit fee. Each applicant should determine his/her school's policies before submitting this application. If you have any questions about tuition, contact the Program Director at your law school or the IU McKinney Program Director.

Note: The American Bar Association and your law school may impose a limit on the number of academic credits you can receive for a foreign study abroad program. Each applicant should determine the impact of any such limitation before submitting this application. If you have any additional questions, contact the Program director at your school or the IU McKinney Program Director.

I apply for acceptance to the 2020 Chinese Law Summer Program. By submitting this application, I permit the CLSP Director and Program Coordinator to share my email address with other students in the CLSP. I also agree that the CLSP can use any photograph taken of CLSP activities in which I appear.

I have typed my application, saved it as a pdf document and emailed it to Heather Grimstad (hgrimsta@iu.edu). In the subject line I have written "Chinese Summer Program Application"
