

2015 International Forum for Law School Students

The Relationship of Government & Market in the Perspective of Law

May 31, 2015

Beijing, China

Sponsors: Renmin University of China Law School

Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of

AGENDA_2015 International Forum for Law School Students

The Relationship of Government & Market in the Perspective of Law

Sunday, May 31, 2015 Beijing, China

Venue: Conference Room 601, Mingde Law Building, Renmin Law School

Opening Ceremony, 08:30-09:00

Chair:

Prof. Lloyd WILSON, Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law
Associate Prof. MENG Yanbei, Renmin University of China Law School

Welcome Speech

Prof. HAN Dayuan, Dean, Renmin University of China Law School

Adress

Prof. AOKI Hitoshi, Dean, Hitotsubashi University Faculty of Law
Prof. MIN YoungSung, Dean, Pusan National University Law School

Group Photo

Session I/Government Control in Different Industries, 09:00-10:35

Chair:

Natasha Nsambo, Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law

Speakers: (each speaker has 20 minutes)

Sainbayar Bulgan-Erdene, National University of Mongolia School of Law

Topic: Mining Market in Mongolia and Its Government Influence

Ernest Holtzheimer, Drexel University Thomas R. Kline School of Law

Topic: Developments and Trends in Venture Capital within the United States and European Union

Darwinson A. Valdez, Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law

Topic: Government Control of the Durg Development Market

Heejo CHOI, Sungkyunkwan University Department of Public Affairs

Kodama Naho, Nagoya Univeristy School of Law

Tomita Yu, Nagoya University School of Law

Suhong YANG, Renmin University of China Law School

Topic: Government's Control over the Legal Market: A Comparative Case Study of PRC, Japan and ROK (CJK)

Commentator (10 minutes):

HU Tianlong, Associate Professor, Renmin University of China Law School

Q & A

Tea Break, 10:35-10:50

Session II /Government & Market Relations in Different Countries,

10:50-12:25

Chair:

FU Chenyu, Renmin University of China Law School

Speakers: (each speaker has 20 minutes)

Joelle Grogan, Oxford University Faculty of Law

Topic: Government/Market Relations as guided by the Rule of Law in a Multi-State System

Graham Evans, University of Cape Town Faculty of Law

Topic: Globalization and the rule of law in developing economies: A reflection from South Africa

Michael W. Müller, LMU München Law School

Topic: How Individual Rights Frame the Relationship of Government and Market-the

TU Longqiang, Renmin University of China Law School

Topic: Practice, Predicament and Solution: An Analysis of Relationship between Government and Market from Perspective of China

Commentator (10 minutes):

DENG Jinting, Assistant Professor, Renmin University of China Law School

Q & A

Lunch, 12:30-13:30

Session III /Privacy, Equality, Crime & Fairness, 13:40-15:15

Chair:

Danielle Angela Reyes, Boston College Law School

Speaker: (each speaker has 20 minutes)

Sandra Wachter, University of Vienna Faculty of Law

Topic: Quo vadis, personal data? Government vs. the private sector- the battle of the giants over the commodity "digital data " in Europe

Mirei Sato, Hitotsubashi University Law School

Topic: PFI Prisons in Japan: Merits and Demerits of PFI Methods

Charles Genki Shimokura, Osaka University Faculty of Law

Topic: Gender Pay Gap in Japan

Monia Karmass, University of Geneva, Faculty of Law

Topic: Governments and Markets teaming up for fair trade: the example of Consumer Protection in Switzerland

Commentator (10 minutes):

Prof. Lloyd WILSON, Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law
Q & A

Tea Break, 15:15-15:30

Session IV /Law & Economics, 15:30-17:05

Chair:

LIU Kaini, Renmin University of China Law School

Speaker: (each speaker has 20 minutes)

Catie WANG, University of Sydney Law School

Topic: Government Intervention in the Trust Industry regarding Exemption Clauses

Jeong Jong Gu, Seoul National University College of Law

Topic: Law & Economics of Regulation

Nam Young LEE, Korea Univeristy School of Law

Topic: Overseas Consumer Purchase: Opportunities and Regulations

ZUO Zhenbin, Renmin University of China Law School

Topic: The Rationale for Government Intervention and Its Failure: An Analysis of Rent-Seeking in China

Commentator (10 minutes):

ZHAN Hao, Managing Partner, Anjie Law Firm

Q & A

Dinner, 17:30-19:00, 1958 Restaurant on Campus