THE FOLLOWING POLICIES APPLY TO STUDENT USE OF THE LAW SCHOOL STUDY ROOMS:

- Study rooms may only be reserved by one law student (one person per room due to COVID-19).
- Reservations by any student are limited to a maximum of four hours per day.
- Reservations should be made at least one business day in advance, but not more than three.
- Study room users may be asked for CrimsonCard identification.
- A person using a study room without a reservation must leave when a student with a reservation arrives.
- Furniture is not to be removed from or brought into a study room.
- The law school is not responsible for personal property.

Please note:
- Any student reservations not adhering to the policies mentioned above may be deleted by the calendar administrator without notice.
- Study rooms are public spaces so masks are required.
